

I will get rid of all things that do not bring value to my life.

I will never consume for the sake of consuming.

I will value experiences and connections with my fellow human beings above all else.

I will be wary of taking on new obligations.

*I will always spend my time,
money, and any other
resource I have deliberately.*
